

Reading

In reading this term, we will be studying 'Fantastic Mr Fox' by Roald Dahl.

Skills:

- Applying new vocabulary in context
- Retrieving facts from the text
- Making inferences
- Making predictions

Writing

In writing this term, we will be inspired by characters from 'Fantastic Mr Fox', by Roald Dahl. We will learn how to write a character description and an instructional text.

Skills:

- Creating descriptions for different characters
- Using similes
- Varying our sentence lengths
- Applying punctuation accurately

Maths

In maths this term, we will be cementing our understanding of place value.

Skills:

- Learning facts about numbers within 100
- Addition
- Subtraction

Our topic:

Where do our things come from?

Helping at home

- Read every day. Some recommended texts are...
Lunchbox – The Story of your Food (Chris Butterworth)
The Farm (Little Explorers)
Charlotte's Web (E.B.White)
A Dollop of Ghee & A Pot of Wisdom (Chita Soudra)
A Collection of Poetry from the Caribbean (John Agard)

RE

This half term, we will be learning stories which link with the five main religions. We will discuss celebrations, stories and ceremonies.

Art/DT

In Art/DT this term we will be learning how to choose and use three different grades of pencil when drawing.

Science

In science this term we are learning all about materials.

Skills:

- Identify and compare the suitability of a variety of everyday materials, including wood, metal, plastic, glass, brick, rock, paper and cardboard for particular uses.

Topic

In topic this term, we will be learning all about where our things come from and contrasting and comparing parts of the world.

Skills:

- Using an atlas
- Retrieving information about the weather
- Locating Oceans and Continents
- Contrasting markets and shops

PE

In PE this term, we are learning to apply our skills into game situations

Skills:

- Hitting, kicking or rolling in a game
- Deciding the best space to be in during a game
- Using tactics
- Following rules

Our PE days will be on Wednesday and Thursday.