

Reading

In reading this term, we will be studying 'Anglo-Saxon Boy' by Tony Bradman.

Skills:

- Retrieving facts from the text
- Making inferences
- Summarising
- Making predictions

Writing

In writing this term, we will be using 'Anglo-Saxon Boy' by Tony Bradman to write a problem story and a newspaper article.

Skills:

- Identifying the key features
- Planning my writing
- Orally rehearsing my sentences
- Proof-reading for errors

Maths

In maths this term, we will be learning about number, place value, approximation and estimation.

Skills:

- Counting in multiples of 6, 7, 9, 25 and 1000.
- Ordering and comparing numbers
- Recognising the place value of each digit
- Finding 1000 more and 1000 less

Our topic:

The Anglo-Saxons

Helping at home

- Read every day. Some recommended texts are Beowulf by Micheal Morpugo and The Buried Crown by Ally Sherrick.
- Take your child to the Birmingham Museum and Art Gallery and Balsall Heath Library.
- <https://www.bbc.com/bitesize/topics/zxsbcdm>
www.bbc.co.uk/schools/primaryhistory/anglo_saxons/index.shtml

RE

This half term, we will be learning about moral values. We will discuss and share our own experiences.

Art/DT

This half term, we will be learning how to use line, tone, shape and colour to represent figure and forms in movement.

Science

In science this term, we will be studying Living Things and their habitats.

Skills:

- Identifying living things
- Classifying groups of animals
- Exploring the environment
- Making observations

Topic

In topic this term, we will be studying the Anglo-Saxons.

Skills:

- Plotting events on a timeline
- Comparing the lives of wealthy and poor people
- Explaining how artefacts can be used to build up a picture of the past
- Researching what life was like for children

PE

In PE this term, we will be learning about Gymnastics and playing Games.

Skills:

- Varying tactics in a game
- Creating, improving and repeating a sequence with at least three phases

Our PE day will be on Tuesday.