You can speak to her in school or you can leave a letter at reception or send one by post. You can also email Ark’s Data Protection Officer using the email address data.protection@arkonline.org.

If we cannot be sure that it is safe, then we will talk to you about it and make sure that you are happy for us to send your information. Where we transfer personal data to a country or territory outside the European Economic Area, we will do so in accordance with data protection law.

How long we keep your information

We keep personal information about you while your child is attending our school. We may also keep it beyond their attendance at our school if this is necessary in order to comply with our legal obligations. We have a policy, which explains how long we keep information. It is called a Data Retention Schedule and you can ask for a copy at reception.

Your rights

You have the right to do the following:

- You can ask us for a copy of the information we have about you. This is called a ‘subject access request.’
- You can ask us to correct any information we have about you if you think it is wrong.
- You can ask us to erase information about you (although we may have good reasons why we cannot do this).
- You can ask us to limit what we are doing with your information.
- You can object to what we are doing with your information.
- You can ask us to transfer your information to another organisation in a format that makes it easy for them to use.

Parents/carers can make a request with respect to their child’s data where the child is not considered mature enough to understand their rights over their own data (usually under the age of 12), or where the child has provided consent.

Parents also have the right to make a subject access request with respect to any personal data the school holds about them.

If you make a subject access request, and if we do hold information about you, we will:

- Give you a description of it
- Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for
- Explain where we got it from, if not from you or your child
- Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with
- Let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data, and any consequences of this
- Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form

Individuals also have the right for their personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.

You can issue a complaint about what we do with your personal information. If you are not happy with our answer to your complaint, then you can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF. Note 1: Legal basis for holding and processing personal data

The use of your information for these purposes is lawful for the following reasons:

- The law requires Ark Schools to collect the information. We need the information to meet the legal requirements of safeguarding pupils.
- To fulfil our functions in providing schooling and so we can look after our pupils. This is in the public interest, because everybody is entitled to an education. This means we have real and proper reasons to use your information.

Less commonly, we may also process your personal data in situations where:

- We have obtained consent to use it in a certain way
- We need to protect an individual's vital interests (protect their life)
- We have legitimate interests in processing the data – for example, where we share newsletters with information about various school activities and events (Fun Runs, bake sales, school performances, etc.) and fundraising information through platforms like Just Giving.

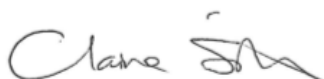

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent, and explain how you would go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using your personal data overlap, and there may be several grounds, which justify our use of your data.
